JUNE FEATURED BUSINESS

At Kokora, we are committed to offering botanical wellness that is good for you and for the planet. An invitation to celebrate the interconnectedness of everything. Our name is inspired by the Japanese term kokoro, translated as "mind," "heart," or "spirit."

Every step of the Kokora process — from soil management, seed selection, cultivation, and harvest, to drying, extraction, concentration, and production — supports the awakening of nature's full potential.
